

Beaujolais-Villages - Vignes de 1940 -

Origin

Old gamay vines with small clusters on the granite rocks. We liked this wine ripe and so pleasurable in the palate. A volcanic pleasure!

From the vines...

Varietal : 100% Gamay Noir.

Vineyard area : 11,25 acres.

Density of plantation : 4000 vines per acre.

Vine Age : 70 years old.

Plot : « Tour Bourdon ».

Soil type : Granitic sand.

Elevation : 200m.

Exposure : Southern on a light slope.

Farming : Sustainable farming, short pruning in bushes, putting straw in the vines.

Winemaking : 6 days maceration with whole clusters in gridded tanks.

Aging : Aged for 6 months in concrete tank.

Clarification : Light filtration.

... To the glass

Very dark red robe. A nose very seductive characterized with blackfruits and roasted notes. In the palate, the wine is very ripe and fruity, with a nice mineral backbone.

Food pairings

Grilled meat or fishes, roasted chicken, cheese and cured meats, indian, mexican or asian food.

Jean-Michel DUPRE

Artisan-Winemaker :

« All of these years later I am still hard at work tirelessly and with a great vigor thanks to the passion for a job well done, it's what motivates me everyday.

The particularity of my vineyard is the age of my vines, some of which are centuries old. »
